BRYAN AND SEWELL

The Standard-Bearers of the Free Silver Democracy.

Proceedings of the Democratic National Convention at Chicago That Nominsted the Ticket on a Free Silver Platform.

CHICAGO, July 7 .- Following are the proceedings of the Democratic national convention:

FIRST DAY.

Prayer was offered by Rev. E. V. Stires, rec-tor of Grace Episcopal church, of Chicago. Then Chairman Harrity, in slow, deliberate committee on resolutions.

Gentlemen of the convention, by direction of the Democratic national committee, I desire to report the following as the temperary organization of the convention: Temporary chair-man, David B. Hill, of New York.

The rest of the organization was read as fol-

For temporary secretary, Simon P. Sheerin Indiana: for sergeant-at-arms, Col. John 1. Martin, of Missour)

What is the pleasure of the convention, Mr. Harrity asked, 'on the report as made from the Democratic national committee?"

On that Mr. Chyton delegate from Alabama, arose, advanced to the platform, and moved that the name of Hon. John W. Daniel, of Virginia, be substituted in the committee re-port for that of Hon. David B. Hill, of New York, and that Hon. John W. Daniel be chosen temporary chairman of this convention.

After a lengthy discussion participated in by half a score of delegates, Hon. Henry T.

Clayton, of Alabama, took the platform and closed the debate. Balloting on the substitu-tion of John M. Daniel in place of Hill began. The ballot resulted in the adoption of the minority report.
The result, official, was: Ayes, 556; nays, 349.

and addressed the convention at considerable

Senator Jones, of Arkansas, presented a resolution of thanks to Chairman Harrity for the able and impartial manner in which he did his duty while presiding. Gov. Hogg of Texas, moved the appointment of committees on permanent organization, cre-dentials, resolutions and rules, and a call of the roll of states for members of committees was at once begun.

After the announcement of the committees

the convention adjourned until 10 a. m. Wednes-

SECOND DAY.

First Session. CHICAGO, July 8.

At a few minutes before II o'clock the tem-porary chairman called the convention to order and announced that its proceedings we opened with prayer by Rev. Thomas Edword Green, rector of Grace church () piscopal). Cedar Rapids, Ia. At this time the section of the New York delegates was still unoccupied. Senator White, permanent chairman-elect, relieved Senator Daniel of the ravel and pre-der, the committee on credentials, and there was no response. After an interval of about ben minutes it was announced that the commitinois: Lavid Overmeyer, of Kansas: George vinciple, irrepressible champion."

partial report of the committee on credentials. recommending that each of the territories and minutes the District of Columbia be granted six votes. The ne report that the delegates hended by Hon. W.

I. Bryan should be admitted to seats. In re-rard to Michigan they asked further time. Mr. Mahoney, of Nebraska, rose in the body of the half and gracefully offered to vacate the bt the man and gracular states of their successful contestants, it pays fekelhelmer. Morgan, or any other man like benefit of their successful contestants, [Cheers and laughter.] parried by a viva voce vote, a demand for a Healt, which was at first made by Gov. Rustell, being withdrawn on the statement of the thairman of the credentials committee that the report was unanimous.

At 1:10 the gold delegation from Nebraska retired to a march tune by the band, and their Eliver successors took their places.

The Bryan men, as they marched in headed by silver-tipped spears and a banner bearing Mr. Bryan's name in silver letters, were voelfbrously applauded.
At 1:37 Mr. Altgeld moved that the convenlion take a recess till five o'clock.

The proposition was met with loud shouts of Happroval. Thereuson the chairman (Mr. White, of California) stated that it had become manifest that there would be no report from the committee on credentials for some lime, and that the motion just made was the result of that fact.

Mr. Finley, of Ohio, moved that the report of the committee on permanent organization be now read and that the convention proceed to its permanent organization, leaving the report of the committee on credentials to be disposed of subsequently.

The chair ruled that as there was no permanent roll of the body, there could be no decira-tion of a permanent organization. He then put the question on the motion for a recess and declared it carried. So the convention took a recess till 5 p. m. !

Second Session. The convention reassembled at 5:30 p. m. with a full attendance of delegates and with crowded galleries. Senator Daniel, of Virginia, was in the chair as temporary chair-

At 5:50 p. m. the committee on credentials presented its complete report, admitting to seats the contesting delegates from the fourth congressional district of Michigan-Messrs. Chamberlain and Hart; also admitting the contesting delegates from the ninth congresmal district of Michigan-Messrs. Hoyt and White-and recognizing the right to their seats of all the other delegates from Michigan Mr. Crosby, of Massachusetts, offered an amendment to retain the four unseated dele-A long and somewhat acrimonious discusn followed which was finally brought to an end by the moving and seconding of the pre-yions question, when the minority amendment was rejected and the report of the majority Heclared adopted.

The report of the committee on permanent rganization was then presented by Mr. Finley, of Ohio, naming Senator White, of California, as permanent president of the conven-tion, and Thomas J. Cogan, of Ohio, as permanent secretary.

The report was adopted and a committee apointed to escort Senator White to the chair. Senator Daniel in retiring from the temporary chairmanship expressed his deep sense of the honor which he had enjoyed and intro-duced Mr. White as "the distinguished sena-

Mr Clark, of Montana rising in the body of the hall, produced a silver gavel from the mines of Montana, which he tendered to the presiding officer in the name of the de egation from that state. The chalrman remarked that in the absence of objection, he would feel compelled to accept this handsome token from the Montana delegation. No objection being heard, the stiver gavel was passed up to the chair-

The convention then on motion of Senator Jones, of Arkansas, adjourned until Thursday morning at ten o'clock.

THIRD DAY. First Session.

CRICAGO, July 9 -- It was 10:55 when Senator White, of California, called the convention to

The Proceedings.

At 12:50 Chairman Harrity of the Democratic national committee rapped for order. He requested the sergeant-at-arms to clear the quested the sergeant-at-arms to clear the chair, and Senator Jones, of Arkansas, chairman of the committee on resolutions, at once

York, who presented a minority report taking issue with the free silver utterances of the platform; indorsing the present administra-Then there was an outbreak of appliause which lasted for two minutes.

The rest of the secretary, and upon the question of the adoution. tion, and to other ways endeavoring to modify of the adoption or rejection of the minority report, the debate began, which insted the entire afternoon, participated in by Senator Tillman, of South Carolina; Senator Hill, of New York: Senator Vilas, of Wisconsin; ex-Gov. Russell of Massachusetts and ex-Representative Bryan, of Nebraska, during the progress of which there were occasional scenes of tumultuous applicuse particularly in the case of Senators Hill and Mr. Bryan. At the close of the debate all amendments were voted down by decisive majorities, and the platform, as presented by the committee, was adopted: Ayes, 628; mays, 301; absent, 1.

He was followed by Senator Hill, of New

Evening Session.

CHICAGO, July 9, -The mass of spectators at this evening's session was, if possible, denser and the excitement intenser than at any prelous meeting of the convention, because the crisis of the nominating speeches and of balloting for presidential candidates had arrived.

It took the sergeant-ut-arms and his assistants fully 15 minutes more to all uv the uprear The chair declared that the minority report substituting the name of John W. Daniel for temporary chairman was adopted.

Senator Daniel was escerted to the platform a very bild laterval, for every moment, on our presence of machine, the crowns brake out.

pretense or another, the crowds broke out with cheering. with energy.

The chairman Daniel finished his speech chairer Jones, of Arkansas, presented a saintien of thanks to Chairman Energy for a combinations of candidates for the presidency should be made. By an agreement, entered into by the friends of the several candidates, the chairman added, the nominating and sevonding specches would be connect to 30 min-utes in length, which time might be used either when the nominations were made or when the state of the speaker was called. Senator Vest, of Missouri, was the first dele-gate to ascend the platform, even before the call of states had got further in the alpabeti-cal list than the state of Arkansas.

The chairman and the sergeant-at-arms appeared to be ulterly unable to cope with the situation and Mr. Vest went on with the speech nominating Mr. Bland. The only part of his steech that stirred the crowd was the closing rises. closing thyme:

Give us Silver Diek

And silver quick And we will make McKinley sick."

This brought down the house and hats and lasted for some minutes. The band came to sided over the informal proceedings of the Cry of Freedom." All the silver delegates convention which followed. Mr. Paniel being in poor voice after his exertions of yesterday.

The temporary chairman announced that the "Freedom of the crowd, striking up." The Rattle Cry of Freedom." All the silver delegates rose to their feet, cheered and induiged in all the usual manifestations of popular enthusiasm, so that what at first was a faint wave of the crowd, striking up. The Rattle Cry of Freedom." All the silver delegates rose to their feet, cheered and induiged in all the usual manifestations of popular enthusiasm, so that what at first was a faint wave of the help of the crowd, striking up "The Battle The temporary chairman announced that the first business in order was the report of committees, as no business could be done, except by unanimous consent, until the committees reported. He called the first committees in orthrough the hall, with the motto "Sliver Dick, the people's choice." A band of music at either end of the hall added to the uproar, while the official band struck up, amid great was no response. After an interval of about ten minutes it was announced that the committee on credentials were about to reassemble after their long night's session.

While awaiting the reports of committees the convention was addressed, in response to rails, by ex-Gov. Hogz, of Texas; Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky; Gov. Altreid of Hoggs of Texas; Senator toes "Free Silver, Free People." One God: one Country; one Bland, silver's interview of the conditions.

At this point (I p. m.) the chair announced a into the asies and jumped erratically in time

The nomination of Mr. Bland was seconded Second, after careful comparison of the cre-lentials as returned by the national commit-tee, they found all of them correct except those from the states of Nebrasha and Mishingan.

In regard to Nebrasha they were pleased to money of the constitution was honest money, that the money which was good enough to pay private debts was good enough to pay every public dest, and that the maney which was good enough to pay George Washington when nighting the buttles of liberty was good enough

Hon, J. R. Williams, of Hillnois, also seeorded the nomination of Bland, speaking of him as a man who had done more than any other American for the restoration of silver.

When the state of Georgia was called Mr. H. T. Lewis, of that state, came to the platform and put in nomination Mr. William J. Bryan, of Nebruska, saving that if public office was a reuncal for public service, no man merited such reward more than he. In the late political contests. Mr. Bryan stood among his peers, like Saul among the Israelites, head and shoulders above all the rest. "Honor him with the nomination," he said, "and you will do credit to the party and earn for yourselves the mandits of your constituents, and the

A scene which was almost a duplication that which attended the nomination of Mr. Bland was enacted when Mr. Bryan's name was proposed to the convention. The delegations from Georgia, North Carolina, Louisiana Nebraska, Michigan, South Dakota and Mis-sissippi rallied around the spear shaped guidons which bear the names of their states and indicate their position on the floor. All the silver delegates arose and joined in vociferos shouting and waving of hats, handkerchiefs, newspapers and every waveable object upon which they could lay their bands. The cene was uproarious for about fifteen min-

Mr. Theodore F. Klutz, of North Carolina. seconded the nomination of Mr. Bryan. He spoke of him us that young giant of the west; that friend of the people; that champion of the oppressed: that apostle and prophet of this great crusade for financial reform. Mr. Bryan's nomination was also seconded by Mr. George Fred Williams, of Massachusetts, who spoke of crowning a leader in the great agricultural movement that was giving none to the country and life to the democracy "We want," he said, "a young man to wield the sword of an indignant people. We want, in this desperate contest, a young glant, out of the loins of a giant republic. We want no Napoleon [cheers], who marched to a throne under the mantle of liberty. What I present to you is a new Cicero, to meet the new Caties of to-day. (Applause.)

Mr. Thomas J. Kernan, of Louisiana, also made a seconding speech in favor of Mr. Bryan. "We have this day," he said, "unlike our republican brethren, "declared that we will no onger worship the golden calf which England has set up. We have refused to permit this ided to command us. in the words of the diety. 'I am the Lord, thy God; thou shalt have no other gods before me." We have declared this day, that henceforth both gold and silver shall rule equal sovereigns in the world of finance. Senator David Turple, of Indiana, rose to cominate Gov. Matthews of that state, but was so indistinctly heard that cries of louder were raised and the chairman explained that the senator's voice was weak and asked indulgence. After a lengthy and glowing descrip-tion of Indiana's favorite son he said:

extend full, equal, and absolutely impartial gate from Indiana suggested an adjournment treatment to all. Every question before the An attempt was made to restore order and the sergeant-at-arms—who is quite a character in his way, and who delights in making speeches from the stand—addressed the audience, say-

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:—I want your ac-tention for a few moments. I want to say that the chairman of this convention desires that I shall announce to you that, unless there is per-fect order jeers, the convention to-merrow will be head without any guests. The delega-tions will be protected by the police, and the audience will not be permitted to come into the hall. Now keep order. [Shouts of lauchter.]

Mr. Martin, of Kansas, indulged in some playful ridicule of the vain efforts of the chair-man and sergeant-at-arms to maintain order. and said if the same disrespect was shown to other speakers as was shown Mr. Turpie he rould move to adjourn.

Hon. Fred White, of Iowa, was recognized to nominate ex-Gov Boles. Cheers of a com-paratively mild type greated the announce-ment, and the Boles banner was raised. Mr. White has a sonorous voice and good de ivery, and was listened to with attention. He

by saying:

Gov. Boies does not believe in a dishonest fifty-cent deliar, as it would work an injury to the creditor class, neither does be believe in a two hundred-tent deliar which is still more dishonest as it unquestionably involves the bankruptey of the debtor class. Gov. Boles believes in an honest American dollar, authorized not by the British parliament but by a law of the American congress and coined for use among the American people. He believes in a good dollar of 222 grains of gold and in a silver dollar just sixteen times heavier.

The finer of a kind fate points to the elec-losed a glowing tribute to lowa's ex-governor

The finger of a kind fate points to the elec-tion of Horace Boles, history seems to be anxious to repeat itself. Give us the man from Waterloo and ailies will flock to his standard which will destroy Mark Hanna's Napoleon number two as effectually as the European allies destroyed the French Napoleon number one.

A Boics demonstration was started by the I was delegation, but made no progress till two young women cressed in white in the south gallery stood up, and wildly waving their arms began shricking for Iowa's governor. Some-body handed one of them a couple of flags, and by this time the attention of the whole convention was directed towards them, and every-body faced that way. The Boles banner was handed to them, and between them they mannged to wave it a few times, and then sank back in their seats exhausted.

mass seconded by Mr. A. T. Smithson, of Minnesota.

Hon. John S. Rhea, of Kentucky, with a voice almost as resonant, and very closely resembling that of the senator he mominated, placed in nomination the name of Senator before the convention, but not a solitary cheer Joseph S. Blackburn, of Kentucky. He pre-faced his remarks with the pleage that who When New Jersey was reached the chairman.

rose and claimed the attention of the convention to say:

"With your kind permission we will send out and make search for another straggler, and if we are successful Wisconsin may yet pledge its support to another candidate. (Laughter and hisses.)

At the close of the call of the roll of states the convention, at 12:35 a. m., adjourned till 10 a m.

FOURTH DAY.

degree of quiet and order in the hall. After five minutes devoted to that purpose with very little success, prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Green, of Grace Episcopal church, Cedar Rapds, In., the same clergyman who officiated the ast two days.

minutions. Mr. Mattingly, of the District of Columbia, rom his place in the rear of the hall, seconded

Mr. Miller, of Oregon, on behalf of that state cominated ex-Gov. Sylvester Pennoyer. No other names being presented, the chair foll of states. But before this was commenced Mr. Smith, of Ohlo, informed the convention of the sudden demise of Hon. Frank Hurd. The chair asked if any action was desired and Mr. Smith said not at this time.

Lomax, of Alabama, rose to say that John B, Knox, H. B. Foster, S. J. Carpenter, J. H. Minge and D. R. Burgess desired to vote for ex-Gov. Wm. E. Russell, of Massachusetts, but under the unite rule, he cast the 22 votes of Alabama for Horace Boies.

Several of the chairmen of the delegations back in their seats exhausted.

As soon as some slight degree of order was interjected little stump speeches into the announcements of the votes of their delegations, was seconded by Mr. A. T. Smithson, of Min-

The Nomines-William J. Bryan, of Nebraska,

the nomination of Mr. Blackburn. He briefly individual preferences of each delegate mental to the chairman cut places. geter and services, and his remarks were well this performance short by asking him to

When Massachusetts was called the chairman of the delegation said Massachusetts and intended to present the name of Gov. Russell, but Mr. Russel declined to run on the platform ador ted Mr. Paul Jones, of Arkansas, also seconded the nomination of Mr. Bland, whom he said was no new convert or experiment in democ-He had fought the battles of the party for 22 years, under the terrible blaze of a poical searchitght, and no spot had been founupon his escutcheon; no flaw in his armor. He was the logical candidate on the great issue that now confronted the American people. Mr. Patrick, of Ohio, when the name of his state was called, put in nomination Mr. John R. McLean, of Cincinnati, and said "I shall pass by extravagnet culogy on the man. His whole life speaks for itself. He is monest capable—he is a democrat. He is the man. His whole life speaks for itself. He is honest, capable—he is a democrat. He is the son of a sire who did more to moid the democratic party in Ohio into triumph than any other man. If you nominate John R. McLean I promise you that Ohio will be the Waterloo of McKinley.

Delegates, we hand over the claim of John R. McLean into your hands and into your hearts, relying on the integrity and gratitude of the great democratic masses. [Cheers.]

Chairman Harrity, of Pennsylvania, when his state was called, said Pennsylvania had no candidate at this time, but when the roll of states was called for the purpose of ascertain-ing their preferences for candidates, Pennsylvania will express her wishes on the subject. Mr. John H. Bankhead, of Alabama, one of the delegates who had relieved Congressman Richardson as temporary chairman, intro-duced the next speaker. Hon Joseph W. Bailey, of Texas. Mr. Bailey was warmly applauded on taking the stand. He earnestly seconded the nomination of Richard P. Bland. Mr. Joseph Rollins, of Utah, briefly seconded the nomination of Bland.

Virginia being called in the roll of states, the chairman of the delegation stated that they had been instructed to present the name of Hon. John W. Daniel, but at his earnest request and insistence did not do so.

The nomination of Mr. Blackburn was also ended by Mr. J. W. St. Clair, who said that though they loved Bland and revered Boles and concred McLean and Matthews, Blackburn ens greater than them all. When the state of Wisconsin was called, Gen. Brugg, the picturesque old hero, chairman of the delegation, rising on a chair in his

"Wisconsin cannot participate in the nomiried with hisses.) One of the delegates from Wisconsin followed, saying that on the part of the delegates of Wisconsin he desired to second the nomination of Joe Blackburn. Mr. E. J. Dockery, of Wisconsin, took his place on the platform and said: "My vote is stifled in this convention by an

CHICAGO, July 10.—At 10:55 Senator White, of California, the permanent chairman, took the chair and made an effort to establish some

The chair immediately recognized Mr. Harrity, of Pennsylvania, who, standing in the main isle, was greeted with cheers. He said: I desire to say that in obedience to instrucous given by the Democratic state convention the Pennsylvania delegation presents the name of Robert E. Pattison, of Pennsylcanta, us a candidate for the presidency. Then the chair asked if there were any more the nomination of that peerless champion of free silver, that true democrat and friend of labor, John R. McLeau, of Chio.

declared the nominations closed, and, first in-voking order, directed the secretary to call the

The call of the roll commenced. When the first state was called Chairman thin her vote. He spoke of his candidate as '-loe' Blackburn and that meant everywas "Joe" Blackburn and that me one (Cheers.)

W. W. Foote, of California, seconded ing on his chair, he began a speech stating the simply give the total votes. The Obiolan then stated that 41 were for McLean, 11 for Bryan; not voting, 1, but under the unit rule Obio casts its rote for the man who made this conrention passible-John R. McLean. South Carolina caused a surprise when the chairman announced that under instructions of his state South Carolina cast 17 votes for voting. (Hisses and cheers.) The vote of Tennessee was challenged and the chairman asked the delegate who demands for another, he desired his name withdrawn. the chairman asked the delegate who demand-el a call whether he meant to deay the ac-Now, in the name of Missouri, Hower the curacy of the statement made by the chair-man of the delegation (Mr. Bate). The delegate said he did. The delegation the gifted and glorious son of Nebraska. (Loud being polled the announcement of Senstor Bate as to the preferences of the ing officer requested gentlemen preferring such charges to bind themselves more accurately in the future [Applause.]

When the state of Wisconsin was called a ontention prose among its delegates-some of the sliver men claiming that the unit rule did not govern their action, and the gold men (especially Gen. Bragg and Senator Vilas) insisting that it did, and that the instructions were printed on the commissions of delegates. A copy of these instructions was sent to the chair and was read by one of the secretaries. It directs the delegates from Wisconsin to "vote as a unit on all subjects and candidates as the majority may determine." The chair ruled on the point of order rulsed by this discussion. He first read again the instructions of the Wisconsin delegation, and said the chair rules that these are not instruc-tions to obstain from voting [Cheers.] The tions to abstain from voting chair further rules that when the roll is called gentlemen absent shall be recorded as absent, and that if a majority of the delegation vote, their votes shall be individually recorded, but a minority can not cast the entire vote of the delegation. This ruling was received with ap-

The vote of Wisconsin was announced: Declining to vote, 19; Bland, 4; Blackburn, L. The state of Colorado, which had been passed by consent, was called, and brought Senator Teller's name before the convention. It was received with faint hisses and very slight ap-

Massachusetts, which had also been passed. brought in Hill's name by casting one vote for

The chair announced the result of the first bailot us follows: First vote-Biand, 223; Bryan, 105; Boies, 86; Blackburn, 83; McLean, nation of a man calling himself a democrat upon a populist platform. (Greatcheers, min-man, 17. Teller, 8. Hill. 1: absent and not ver-man, 17. Teller, 8. 54; Matthews, 37; Campbell, 2; Pattison, 95; man, 17; Teller, 8; Hill, 1; absent and not voting 185.

The second ballot was begun at 12:3% As on as it was started Senator White vacated the chair, placing the gavel in the hands of Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee. South Carolina swung over from Tillman to Bryan, whose gains had begun early in the balloting. The District of Columbia manifested its capacity for lightning changes by scatter-nd, 2; Matthews, 1; Boles, 1. Again of 7

Bland, 2; Matthews, 1; Boles, 1. Again of 7 for Bryan.

The result of the second ballot was announced at 1:18 p. m., as follows: Bland, 281; Boles, 37; Matthews, 34; McLean, 53; Blackburn, 41; Pattison, 100; Bryan, 197; Pennoyer, 8; Stevenson, 10; Hill, 1; Teller, 8

The third ballot was then begun at 1:30

New York on the third ballot, as on the second, remained mute when the name of the state was called and the clerk repeated the call in his loudest tone, but without result. The result of the third ballot was announced at 1:50 p. m., as follows: Biand 291; Beies 36; Matthews 34; McLean 54; Bryan 219; Blackburn 27; Pattison 97; Stevenson 9; Hill 1; absent or not voting 161. A fourth roll call was immediately ordered and Senator White resumed the chair.

The result of the fourth ballot had only been partially announced when it was interrupted by an intensely dramatic scene. When Bryan's big gain from 219 to 280, heading Bland and all the other candidates, was announced, by a prearranged plan. Bryan banners were sed on the standards of several states, and big shouting was indulged in, with a view of stampeding the convention to his sup-port. Nevada, a McLean state: Kansas, a Bland state: Idaho, and other states that had previously voted for other candidates, led the movement. They were quickly followed in the order named by the New Mexico, California, Nevada, District of Columbia, Idaho, Minnesota, Washington, Virginia, Indian Territory, who all raised their standards and joined in the general shout for Bryan. Then a procession was started, the standards of 22 states and territories being borne round the hall amid a perfect tornado of

(The chair announced a decision that twothirds of the number of votes given are necessary to make a nomination, and not two-thirds of the total wote of the convention.)

Then Illinois joined in and Florida followed. Ohio came in and a brief spell of silence fol-lowed, as the rumor passed around that a deal was on with McLean for second place.

was on with McLean for second place.

After 15 minutes of this hippostrome performance the announcement of the result was continued, and the fourth ballot was officially announced as follows:

Bland, 241; Poles, 33; Matthews, 36; McLean; 46; Bryan, 250; Blackburn, 27; Pattison, 95; Stevenson, 8: Hill, I. Absent or not voting. 182. Total, 830. Total number of votes cast on fourth ballot, 768. Necessary to a choice, 512.

At 2.45 the lifth roll call was begun, and it chusetts, 76; McLean, 111; Lewis, 11; Clark, soon became evident that Bryan would secure totes sufficient on this ballot to nominate him by the necessary majority.

50: Sewall. 100: Sibley, 163. Absent or except the necessary majority.

50: Sewall. 100: Sibley, 163. Absent or except the necessary majority. by the necessary majority.

The Ballots.
NAMES.	PERM	Second	Third.	Fourth	Fifth.	1 40 40
Bland	25 H S S H S .	283 194 41 41 53 53	291 219 36 37 37 38	241 280 281 281 481	106 500 56 	2000
Campbell Pattl on Pennover Russell Sietenson	95 6 21 1-	100	97	97	9.	1200
Tillman Teller Hill Not Voting	17 8	8	,	163	1	1

When Kentucky was reached Mr. Rhea, who had put Senator Blackburn in nomination, rose and said: "While Kentucky loves her great democrat. Joe Blackburn, and would be glad to see him elected president, yet as he has served in the confederate army, they don't seem to want him (faint hisses). Therefore Kentucky world's greatest crator. W. J. Bryan. (Cheers.)

Illinois, which had asked to be passed, east her 48 votes for Bryan. This left him with 446 votes, 66 short of the necessary name. but it was of such a substantial character that takes pleasure in casting her 26 votes for the world's greatest orator. W. J. Bryan. (Cheers.)

otes, 66 short of the necessary number. Oklahoma changed her 6 votes from Bland to Bryan, making 454. Then Ohio withdrew the name of McLean and cast 46 votes for Bryan, making his total Before the result was announced, but when it was known that Mr. Bryan had received within a few of the necessary number of votes, Gov. Stone of Missouri ascended the platform. and as soon as order could be obtained he addressed the convention in these words: "GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION-TWO OF three days since I received this note, which I will now read in your hearing, from Richard Parks Bland: 'I wish it to be understood that I do not desire the nomination unless it is the tudement of the free silver delegates that I would be the strongest candidate. If it shall at any time appear that my candidacy is one more acceptable to a majority of these delegates than myself, I wish my name, at thing. (Cheers.) It was true that he was free the south and had been a confederate soldier, but his candidacy was not a servicioni one. (Cheers.)

There was some curiosity to see how Ohio would vote, and the chairman of the delegation manifested a full desire to agratify it. Standing the structions for me. If need be, and to let the free structions for me. If need be, and to let the free sliver designates decide the whole matter. The cause must be put above the name." [Apas one of the delegates from Missou i, volcing the sentiment of the democracy of that state, to present for your deliberate consideration the name of that fillustrious commoner for whom many of you have expressed a preference by your votes in this convention. To the struggle, I desire now to return my grateful Ben J. Tillman, one not thanks, but, following the direction of the cheers.)

Mr. Bland himself that whenever a majority and long continued cheers.) "We have chosen a splendid leader, beautiful as Apollo, intellectual beyond comparison, a great crator, a great scholar, but above all, there is beating in his breast a heart that throbs in constant sympathy with the great masses of the people and instinct with the highest sentiment of patriotism. "We will not only nominate him, but I beieve, with as much confidence as I can believe anything in the future, we will elect him by a very large majority in November, and, gentle-men of the convention, we will inaugurate not only a democratic administration at Washington, but one that will set down as among the purest and ablest and most illustrious of American history. "So now, gentlemen, I withdraw the name of Richard Parks Bland and cast the 34 votes of the state of Missouri for Wm. J. Bryan."

The nomination of Bryan was made unaniious on motion of Senator Turple, of Indiana. After the nomination was made all the states ormed in line and marched about the hall with their signs in honor of Bryan except New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Rhode Island, Maine. Delaware. Connecticut, Massachusetts and New Hampshire.

The convention, at 3:32 p. m., took a recess until 8 p. m.

Evening Session.

CHICAGO, July 10. The proceedings of the evening were opened a few minutes before 9 p. m., when Senator White, of California, the chairman, called the envention to order. At that time ex-Gov. ower and a fair proportion of the New York delegates occupied scats in their section, Senator Hill and Mr. William C. Whitney having left the city in the afternoon. Most of the New Jersey delegates were also present. The fact that both these state delegations had declined to participate in the balloting for the presidential candidate made their presence matter of remark.

The chairman announced thetafter the nomi-nation for vice-president should be made (whenever that might be) the committee or notification would at once meet in the room of the committee on resolutions, to the right of the chair.

The vast crowd that packed the galleries was duced Mr. White as "the distinguished senator from California." [Cheers.]

Senator White, of California on taking the Shair, spoke of the convention as an assemthair, spoke of the convention as an assemthat 10:39, soon after Mr. Trippett took the platform. I am the distinguished senator from California. " [Cheers.]

Hon. Oscar Trippett, of California, was next undemocratic unit rule and, therefore, I am prevented from recording it for lightning changes by scatterting its votes as follows: Three for Bryan, one for Bland, one for Boles and one for McLean.

Before the vote was announced, and while it was being footed up, California announced a would have failen on John R. McLean, of Cin

Bryan's nomination, was next to refatic platform. I am downed to despond the adjusted the galleries was downed over as it soon downed over as the form recording it for lightning changes by scattering its votes as follows:
The vast crowd name of the prevented from recording it for lightning changes by scattering its votes as follows:
The vast crowd name of the prevented from recording it for Bland, one for Boles and one for McLean.

Before the vote was announced, and while it was being footed up, California announced a which it had appeared earlier in the evening which is had appeared earlier on John R. McLean, of California announced a which is had appeared earlier on the choice of a candidate for vice-president, which is had appeared to second the converg

Amid much confusion Gen. Bragg again change of her vote as follows: Bryan, 14: clanati. This became apparent when Gov Stone, of Missouri, was recognized to move an adjournment, which, after some spirited opposition, was agreed to and the convention adjourned until tene clock Saturday morning.

FIFTH DAY.

Proceedings.

The Proceedings. At 11 a m. the chairman, Senator White, of California, called the convention to order, and (prayer having been dispensed with) Mr. Har-rity, of Pennsylvania, announced that the pres-ent national committee would meet at the Pal-mer house at 3 p. m., and would be gind to welcome the new national committee.

Senator Jones, of Arkansas, moved that the convention proceed to the nomination of can-didates for the vice-presidency, and the motion was agreed to with cheers.

George Fred Williams, of Massachusetts, was put in nomination by Mr. O'Sullivan, a delegate from that state.

Wm. R. Burke, of Chlifornia, was recognized and named Arthur Sewall, of Maine. Mr. Showalter, of Missouri, presented the name of Joseph C. Sibley, of Pennsylvania. C. S. Thomas, of Colorado, seconded the nomination of Arthur Sewall, of Maine. Mr. O'Sullivan, of Massachusetts, took the platform to name George Fred Williams, of Massachusetts. Congressman Tom Johnson, of Ohio, nominated George W. Fithian, of Illinois. Hon. N. A. Miller, of Oregon, nominated ex-Gov. Pennoyer.

O. W. Powers, of Utah, nominated Senator

John W. Daniei, of Virginia. Mr. Moloney, of Washington state, nom-inated James Hamilton Lewis, of Washing-Mr. Jones, of Virginia, withdrew Senator

Daniel's name.

F. P. Morris, of Illinois, seconded the nomination of Sibley, of Pennsylvania. Ulrich Sloan, of Ohio, withdrew the name of John R. McLean. Congressman Fithian, of Illinois, stated that he was not a candidate for vice-president. He seconded the nomination of "libley."

John Scott of Maine seconded Sewall.

The chair read the names already before the convention: Williams, McLean, Lewis, Clark Fithian, Pennoyer, Sewall and Sibley, and directed that a ballot be taken.

The first ballot as officeally announced is: Blackburn, :0; Bland, 62; Teller, 1; Daniel, 11;

A second ballot was ordered and taken, re-sulting as follows: Williams, of Illinois, 13; Dark, 22; Pattison, 1; Harrity, 21; Bland, 294; Williams, of Massachusetts, 416; McLean, 158; ewall, 37: Sibley, 113: absent or not voting 55. Total votes 800. A third ballot was ordered.

During the roll call on the third ballot the ote was suspended and Ames J. Cummings, of New York, was presented to the convention Cummings read a telegram announcing Sibley's withdrawal.

The official announcement of the third ballot ollows: Paitison, 1; Daniel, 6, Bland, 25; dcLean, 210; Sewall, 97; Sibley, 19; Williams, f Mussuchusetts, 15; Clark, 22. Total cast, 75 Absent or not voting, 255. Necessary to holce, 450. Gov. Sone, of Missouri took the platform after third ballot an anacunced. He read a telegram from Bland declining to run. When the roll call for the fifth ballot had proceeded a short distance down the list it became evident that Sewell was gaining strength, in view of the withdrawal of Bland's name from the contest, and then began a stampede to Sewell, not so pronounced as that of Friday for Mr. Bryan, HICAGO, July 11.

NAMES.	First	Second	Third.	Fourth	Finb
Sewell	100	37	97	261
Boles.	203		-31	1000
Williams (Mass.)	76	16	15
Harrity	21	21	-53	11
Bland	62	294	255
Teller	- 1
White	- 1
Blackburn	. 20
Sibley	163		19
McLean	111	158	210	298
Fithian	1	****
Lewis	31
Clark	50	90	99	46
Daniel	11		- 6	54
Williams (III.)	22	13		9
Pattison		1	1	- 1
Control of the second s	4940.00	- maria	-	10000

Senator Jones, of Arkansas, offered a resolution authorizing the national committee to fix time and place of the next national conven-

A resolution of thanks of the convention to the presiding officers was passed. The national committee meeting was called for 5 p. m. at the Palmer house. The thanks of the convention were extended to the citizens of Chicago, and Chicago was voted the greatest convention city on earth.

A motion was offered that the next convention abolish the two-thirds rule. Ruled that this convention can not make rules for others.

The convention, at 3:18 p. m., adjourned sine NEW NATIONAL COMMITTEE. All of the Vacancies Filled and the Com mittee Complete.

The following is the new National Democratic committee: Alabama-H. D. Clayton Arkansas-Thomas C. McRae. California-J. J. Dwyer. Colorado-Adnir Wilson, Connecticut-Carlos French. Delaware - R. R. Kenney. Florida--amuel Pascoe Georgia-Clark Howell Idaho-George Ainslee. Illinois—Thomas Gahan. Indiana—John G. Shanklin. Iowa-Charles A. Walsh. Kansas-J. G. Johnson. Kentucky-Urey Woodse Louisiana-N. S. Bianchard. Maine-Seth C. Gordon. Maryland-Arthur P. Gorman. Massachusetts-John W. Corcoran. Michigan-E. G. Stevenson. Mississippi-W. V. Sullivan. Missouri - W. J. Stone. Montana-A. J. McHatton. Nebraska-W. P. Thompson. Nevada-R. P. Keating New Hampshire-A. W. Sulloway. New Jersey-James Smith, Jr. New York-John S. Sheehan. North Carolina-Joseph Daniela. North Dakota-W. C. Lustikow. Ohio-John R. McLean. Oregon-J. Townsend. Pennsylvania-William F. Harrity. Rhode Island - Richard B. Combat South Carolina-Benjamin R. Tillman. South Dakota-James M. Wood. Tennessee-J. M. Head. Texas-J. G. Dudley. Utah-A. W. McCune. Vermont-R. B. Smalley. Virginia-P. J. Otey. Washington-Hugh C. Wallace, West Virginia-J. T. McGraw. Wisconsin-E. C. Wall. Wyoming -W. H. Holliday. Arizona-W. H. Burbage. District of Columbia-Lawrence Gardner. Indian Territory-Thomas Marcom. New Mexico—F. A. Manzanares. Oklahoma—White M. Grant. Alaska-C. D. Rogers.

"Mr. Bryan is a very able man. He is in thorough accord with the democratic platform. I am pleased with his nomination, and I will do all in my power to secure his election," said Richard P. Bland when informed of